Job Title: Marina and Boatyard Operative

Location: Falmouth Marina, Cornwall

Closing Date: 11th October 2021

Job Description:

The position of Marina & Boatyard Operative has become available at Falmouth Marina. Working as part of a small, hardworking team, this multi-faceted role will include but is not limited to: Boatyard and Dry Stack operations (including operation of all plant), duties on the pontoons and also the marina reception, carrying out regular site patrols, general marina maintenance, site cleanliness and presentation, dealing with and recording vessel movements in and out of the marina, welcoming visitors, serving fuel and compiling handover reports.

A good knowledge of boats and experience driving plant would be a significant advantage but not essential as all training, where required, will be given.

Candidates must be able to demonstrate:

- The ability to understand and deliver excellent customer service
- Flexibility and adaptability to both marina and boatyard operations
- Ability to learn and use computer software systems
- “A can do” attitude and a flexible approach to teamwork

This role will involve working outdoors in all weather conditions on a shift pattern that covers a 7 day week operation. The successful applicant would be required to work some weekends and bank/public holidays as per the duty rota. A full UK driving license is essential.

We are committed to equality of opportunity for all staff and applications from individuals are encouraged regardless of age, disability, sex, gender reassignment, sexual orientation, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief and marriage and civil partnerships.

Proof of eligibility to work in the UK will be required. Our Applicant Privacy Notice can be found on our website.

APPLY: In writing to Tracey Jefkins, Head of HR, supported by a current CV and covering letter describing why you are applying for the role along with your salary expectation. Email address: careers@premiermarinas.com
Successful applicants will be contacted and invited for an interview.
